I wanted to update our community on the actions the town is taking regarding the coronavirus and provide some local news. The Board of Supervisors have met at an emergency session to discuss the Coronavirus. Livingston County is now in a State of Emergency following the virus. The State mandated that all non-essential employees be reduced by 50%. Livingston County has a website and I would encourage you to review the website for updates. Their website is www.livingstoncounty.us.

Following the State mandate we have also reduced our staffing to be non-essential employees as well. This includes our town court as all NYS courts are closed until May 1, 2020. The town hall is closed to the public but can make an appointment with the town clerk by calling (585) 243-1750 or by email at townclerk@grovelandny.org. We will be keeping the town website updated please check the website for updates. The town website is www.grovelandny.org.

The town has made preparations to assist the community in what essential needs they may have such as supplies, along with information regarding the coronavirus. Many of you have seen the news and have a good understanding of how to prevent the coronavirus, please remember in this time of uncertainty to remain calm.

This is an unscripted time in society and I ask that if you know of someone that may be shut in or is having difficulty obtaining essential supplies to please contact the town. We will assist our community in any way possible.

Should you have any questions please feel free to contact me at (585)747-9443.

Sincerely,
